Summary

My journey

Starting a career as a content writer right after completing graduation in Computer Science was a bit of a risky deal. But with perseverance and determination comes the will to face any challenges thrown at you. Moreover, immense passion to write and love for reading keeps you going. That's how I got a direction and I started on this exciting journey. Grabbing all the opportunities to carve my skills and a constant effort to better myself at it is my MANTRA!

My beliefs

Living life passionately

Taking the road less travelled

Transforming problems into solutions

Perseverance and Determination

Who am I?

To keep it simple and crisp, I am a rookie, enthusiastic, and disciplined CONTENT WRITER!

Discovering my potentials in different content fields, and practising values to deliver great content.

Besides that, I love writing poems, short stories, perceptive writing, and quoting my Instagram posts.
